Defendants.

In an order dated September 30, 2013, the court required Tatum to identify which of his numerous, distinct claims he wished to pursue in this lawsuit no later than October 21, 2013. (Dkt. #11.) Instead, Tatum filed a motion for reconsideration, arguing that he could pursue each of the unrelated claims in one lawsuit because he was bringing it as a class action. (Dkt. #12.) In denying this motion, the court extended the deadline by which he had to identify the claim he wished to pursue until November 8, 2013. (Dkt. #13.) In response, Tatum filed another motion for reconsideration raising the same arguments asserted in his first motion. (Dkt. #14.) The court denied that motion as well and advised Tatum that he had to respond to the court's September 30, 2013, order no later than November 8, 2013, or this action would be dismissed. (Dkt. #15.) Tatum has failed to respond. Accordingly,

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

- 1) this action is dismissed without prejudice; and
- 2) the clerk of the court is directed to close this case.

Entered this 3rd day of December, 2013.
